REFERENCE FORM for the church Pastor to complete

Southcity Christian School is a state-integrated school with a defined Special Character. The special character of our school is decidedly Christian, broadly evangelical and traditional in its Biblical ethics and morality. Preferential applicants must be verified as being committed and practising Christians. The Private Schools' Conditional Integration Act (1975) defines 'preferential applicants' as those who have established a particular connection with the school through a demonstrated commitment to its special character.

This document must be completed by a Pastor/Minister or senior leader of the church congregation at which the applicant and his/her family attend and worship. Your response will be treated with the utmost confidentiality.
